

MORNING APPEAL.

Sunday, June 10, 1888.

THE ALGER BOOM.

Over two years ago the APPEAL flung the name of Alger to the breeze as a fit man to be the Republican nominee for President.

People laughed at the APPEAL at the time, but his boom is growing with a steady, healthy growth.

The Chicago Tribune says that Gresham, Depew and Alger are now the three men between whom the nomination lies.

The Daily Report of San Francisco has the following:

Interest now centers on the Republican nominations. With Blaine out of the field, Alger is certainly the leading candidate so far as California Republicans are concerned. He is a self-made man, with a good record, civil and military—and is sure of the soldier vote. He is an intelligent citizen with the power of making himself popular and respected with those with whom he comes in contact. True, he is a railroad man, but he operates his own railroads—those he needs to develop the forests he owns in Michigan. He is not a corporation man in the sense in which that term is used in politics. There is also particular, as well as general, reason why California should favor Alger, for he has expressed a favorable opinion of California and faith in her future as distinctly as anyone could by investing largely in property in this State. So far as we can see, the Alger boom should be of considerable size when the convention meets in Chicago, and Californians will watch its fate with at least kindly interest.

SILVER'S ENEMY.

The Democratic platform ignores the silver question, although the Pacific Coasters wanted a plank in its favor. It could not do otherwise. To resolve against silver would kill the party before the country, and Cleveland could not stand on a plank supporting it, because he has openly and persistently opposed it. His financial as well as his revenue ideas are British. He wants the gold standard, a rise in the value of money and debts, and a fall in the earning ability of labor. As the Democratic boss that party dares not cross his wishes, and may be deemed acquiescent in an anti-silver policy.

Yet with these facts staring it in the face, the Virginia Chronicle announces with a flourish of trumpet that "every friend of silver will vote for Cleveland" and the flowery tongued Dorsey who made such a rhetorical ass of himself at St. Louis pledged the Silver State to Cleveland.

The Silver State and its intelligent voters know just exactly how Cleveland stands on the Silver question.

He is a Gold Bug tool and has always been so recognized. The Silver State will show him under by at least 2,000 majority and every intelligent man in this State knows it.

All About Grover Cleveland.

Grover Cleveland has cut off manufacturers' orders and is forcing them to run their mills on half time. Grover Cleveland is preventing retailers from buying by proposing to admit the pauperized products of Europe free of duty. Grover Cleveland is shutting down iron masters' furnaces, closing their rolling mills because he is leading railroads to believe that ruinously low prices will soon prevail. Grover Cleveland is taking work from the workingmen, is beginning to beggar them, to make their wives and children go hungry because he is working to reduce wages here to the level of Belgium and Germany and England. He will hear from the country before long, for he is an avowed enemy of the masses. — Philadelphia News.

Hewitt and Cleveland.

The Philadelphia Ledger has the following:

Mayor Hewitt today made a really astonishing statement in regard to his relations to President Cleveland. "The statement that I am in a disgruntled state toward Mr. Cleveland," he said, "is not true. I admit that I was not enthusiastic for Mr. Cleveland's election. I spent the Summer of 1884 in Europe. When I returned in September I found Mr. Cleveland defeated. His friends came to me and said, 'as things stand we are beaten.' They appealed to me to come to their aid. I consented, and took my coat off and went to work. The result was that I elected Mr. Cleveland. If I had not taken the part I did, and had not done the work I did, Burchard would not have saved him.

—Miss Cleveland, who a few months ago entered the academy of Mrs. Sylvanus Reed, New York, with a great flourish of trumpets to "assume" an important position therein, has now "severed her relations" with the school, and her "plans for the future are uncertain." Miss Cleveland is evidently one of those uncomfortable people who are to ambitious and to confident of their own superiority to ordinary mankind to settle down to ordinary hum-drum work and not enough ability or continuity of purpose to succeed in any thing else. We fancy President Cleveland must often wish his erratic sister would keep quiet for about three months at a time.—Daily Report.
